It's called....REORDER MANIA!

Who can do this? Everyone! Even the newest consultant can do this because it is so easy!!

What is it? you have been selected to represent your unit in participating in a game called reorder mania where you have 5 days to sell 200 ten dollar items!

How do you do that? You get out your brochures and sales ticket, print off the Tracking sheet and fill it out.

Use the following words to get your co-workers, neighbors, friends, and family on your team!

"Hi _____ I am so excited about a company contest I'm in. I have been selected by my unit to participate in the Company's Reorder Mania Game. I am working on selling 200 $10 items in five days! I can't do it alone so I am selecting 10 friends to help me out! And if you help me, you get free product! All you do is take my brochures for 4 days, tell everyone you are helping me out in a contest to sell as many items as possible! Let them know that your goal is either 10 or 20 or 30 items and that each $10 in retail counts as an individual item. Ask them to take a quick look and see what they might like to get."

For helping me out, I'll give you $10 worth of free product for selling 10 items, $20 free for selling 20 items, $30 free for selling 30 items etc. The sky is the limit and remember every $10 of retail counts as one item so you don't need to find 10 people, just 5 women spending $20 so I will pick up your orders on and then you can tell me what you want for you FREE products. So _____, can I stop by today to bring over the brochures"?
