Faith VS. Fear by Sean Key, Mary Kay Cosmetics Corporate National Director of Sales Development

Faith vs. Fear

A faithful person believes that the best is yet to come

A fearful person believes the best has already come and gone

A faithful person seeks opportunity

A fearful person seeks security

A faithful person wants to be pushed

A fearful person wants to be protected
A faithful person thinks all things are possible

A fearful person thinks that very little is possible
A faithful person accepts the help of others

A faithful person has achieved the victory in her head and heart before she tries

A fearful person makes up her mind that it won’t work and never tries

A faithful person recovers quickly from a crisis

A fearful person finds ways to exist in a crisis
A faithful person recounts her victories

A fearful person recounts her failures
A faithful person believes that she can’t win if she doesn’t try

A fearful person believes that she can’t fail if she doesn’t try

A faithful person relies on God
A fearful person relies on herself